GÉORGE SWEENY.

OTARY PUBLIC, Conveyancer and General Agent, has removed his Office to 7th street, adjoining his Dend E streets. Oct 26 resistence, between D and E streets.

CLOTHS AND CASSIMERES.—We have just re-10 pieces super west of England Cloths, invisible Green do wool dyed Black do Olive do

Also, 50 pieces English Cassimeres Asphaltum Cloths, very superior 4 do The above will be sold very cheap.
dec 7 DRADLEY & CATLETT.

BREAST-PIN LOST .- A liberal reward will be given for a Breast Pin, supposed to have been dropped somewhere in this city, or in the cars between this and Butimore,

For description, inquire at No. 150 Market street, Bal-timore, or in Washington of S ! TODD.

THE BALTIMORE COAT-DRESSING AND DY-ING ESTABLISHMENT-Is removed entirely

the city of Washington and located permanently at the WIG-WAM.

South star Perp. Avenue, near Four-and-a-half street.

The proprietor, Wm. Bell, gentlemens' coat dresser and dyer, would return his grateful acknowledgments to the citizens of the District for the very liberal patronage extended to him for the last 5 years, and assures them, that he has spared no expense in fixing himself; so that he is prepared to dye all colors in the best manner, at the very lewest prices, and to expedite all orders at the shortest His style of work is neculiar to himself, which he is happy to say has given entire approbation to the members of Congress and citizens.

Notice to Strangers.—I have no connexion with my old stand opposite the wig-wam, although they display my old bills, which may tend to deceive them. Nov. 9.-2m (Alex: Gazette, St.) WM BELL

MERINO AND LAMBSWOOL DRAWERS AND SHIRTS .- The subscribers have just received, and offer to the notice of custom-rs-

15 dozen super Lambswool Drawers 6 do heavy kint 12 do heavy merino 10 do cotton

do Lambswool Shirts 9 do merino

Also an extensive assortment of Silk Shirts and Drawers of best quality. BRADLEY & CATLETT.

ADY BLESSINGTON'S WORKS complete in two vols.; containing—
The Two Friends The Repealers Confessions of an Elderly Gentleman
Do do Lady
The Victim of Society Conversation with Lord Byron

The Honeymoon Flowers of Loveliness

Gems of Beauty,
This day received, and for sale at
W. M. MORRISOY'S Book Store, four doors west of Brown's Hotel.

A CARD .- TO THE LADIES.

MERINO and Circassian Dresses, with every othe Family Article in the Woollen or Worsted line DYED beautiful Greens, Scarlet, Yellow, Blue-brown Purple, Adelaide, and all the intermediate shades of colo at a short notice and on moderate terms, we applying to WM. BELL.

Coat Dresser and Dyer, only at the WIG-WAM, south side of Pennsylvania avenne, near 41 street, Washington N. B. Family Monching Dyed in 24 hours notice. (No connexion with any other establishment. Nov 9-14 6t

HOUSE AND LOT IN MECHANICS' ROW FOR SALE.—We will sell on very accommodating terms the House now occpied by Mr. Given at $160 per annum. nov 30 BRADLEY & CATLETT.

GENTLEMEN AND BOYS' WINTER WEAR.—
I would respectfully invite attention to my large and general assortinent of gentlemen and boys' fall and winter wear, being late addition to my stock, and consisting, in part, of 25 pieces black, blue, Adelaide, and invisible green cloths

50 do funcy and plain cassimeres 100 do sattinets all colors and qualities 10 do Kentucky jeans winter vestings, consisting of silk and satins, plain and cut velvets, Valencias, &c. &c.

ALSO, Lambswool shirts and drawers Plain and trimmed stocks Somer kid, hearer, and Angola gloves
Lambswoo, Vigonia, worsted, country-knit and silk

Spitalfields and bandanna handkerchiefs

Gum elastic suspenders, indeed every article in the Those who wish to purchase any of the above articles will find an advantage on call

JAMES B. CLARKE. Opposite Centre Market, and No. 2 from 8th street.

T IE CHRISTIAN BRAHMIN, or Memoirs of the Life, Writings, and Character of the Converted Brahmin. Babajee, including Illustrations of the Pomestic Habits, Manuers, Customs, and Superstitions of the Hindoss, a Sketch of the Deccin, and Notices of India in general, and an Account of the American Mission a Alimednayyur: by the Rev. Hollis Read. Americant Missionary to India. A few copies for sale by W. M. MOR-BISON, 4 doors West of Brown's hotel.

MEMOIR OF THE REV. HENRY MARTYN, B. D., late Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, the Rev. John Sargeant, M. A., Rector of Saving on, from the tenth London edition, corrected and enlarged; with an Introductory Essay and an Appendix by the American editor: third edition Fo sale by W. M. MORRISON. at his book and stationery slore, 4 doors West of Brown's

200 PACKAGES BRY GOODS AT REDUCED PRICES.—We have on hand one hundred and twenty thousand dollars of goods, well bought which will be sold at very reduced prices for cash. We are particularly desirous of reducing our stock. Goods sold to punctual customers on our usual terms.

Nov 2 BRADLEY & CATLETT

Nov 2 BRADLEY & CATLETT

THE ART OF PAINTING IN Oil AND IN FRESCO: being a history of the various processes and material employed from its discovery by Hurbert and John Van Eyek to the present time; translated from the onn van Eyek to the present time; translated from the original French Treatise of M. J. F. L. Merimee, Secretary to the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in Paris, with original observations on the rise and progress of the British art, and the French and English chromatic scales and theories of coloring, by W. B. Sarfield Taylor, Senior Curator of the Living Model Academy, &c. Just received and for sale at W. M. MORRISON'S Book and Stationery Store, 4 doors west of Brown's Hotel.

JUST RECEIVED, a further supply of cheap edition of the Waverley Novels - Kenilworth. This day received and for sale by W. M. MORRISON, Nov. 4 doors west of Brown's Hotel.

ON THE FOUNDATIONS OF MORALS - Four O Sermons preacted before the University of Cambridge, November, 1637, by the Rev. Wm. Whewell, Fellow and Tutor of Trinity College; with additional Discourses and Essays, by C. S. Henry, D. D. Professo of Philose thy in the University of the city of New York pov 9. For sale by W. M. MORRISON.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR -We offer for sale-Superior cloths, cassineres, sattinets Francels, vestings, baizes, Kobroy jeans Lambawool shirts and drawers Sitk bandkerchiefs, gloves, &c.
Sept 28—3t A. W. & E. J. TURNER.

CARD. - Being desirous to reduce my present stock (which is large and vacious.) preparatory to la) ing in Pall supplies, I shart older goods at very resucced priors.

JAMES B. CLARKE,

No. 2 from 8th street, and opposite Centre Market.

Aug 24 BUILDING MATERIALS, of every description, for U. WARD.

U. WARD. Near 12th at bridge MINIATURE PAINTING, by Miss E. J. BANNE. Room N. E. corner of Penn. Avenue and 11th St. ver the Store of Messrs. Ricards, Gibbs & Co., where

THE NATIVE AMERICAN.

At New London, Connecticut, the following are the following words, in large characters, the fire. Here rests William Hetman."

From the "Green Mountain Boys"

"Hallo, there!" cailed out Captain Hendee in no very gentle tones, as he cocked his pistols.

voice without. " Let him in, father, do let him in! ' said Miss Hender in a low beserching tone. "What, without giving his name!" said the Captain. " Why, child, I don't know that voice from Adams'! No, no, friend or foe, he shall

" Well, father, you can just ask him, without blacing her hand on the arm of the other.

· Friend," said Captain Hendee, softening down at the entreaties of his daughter, and as it occurred to him that the tones of the voice he had just heard were entirely of a pacific charac-

"Captain Hendee," said the man, seeming to hesitate about complying. "I am wholly unattended, your dog here seems to acknowledge my acquaintance, and if you will not do the same. when I am admitted," he added in rather a jocose tone, "I will agree to depart as praceably as I came."

" Humph! me know that man talk! Him no had!" said the Indian, with a low charkle.

parade he had made, immediately drew out the professions." other.

"What! no-yes, 'tis!" exclaimed Hendee, between perplexity and surprise, after looking but with lew none tell their names." few seconds into the face of the new comer. "Well, now, by the great Jupiter: if I am not absolutely ashamed of myself! Mr Howard!" he all together now-they were not when you saw ns. I think. Alma, you are acquainted with of May." of our family."

so, who came in for his share of surprise, at ol xity, or exposing Warrington in the disguise privately cherished. which he supposed was for some good reasons old us, nor, indeed, how you became apprised of Miss Hendee, was hesitating on her account as say but a moment since?" well as his own, what answer he should frame to from the reinforcement received in his friend these secursed fetters, how far could your countenance, who as usual had his rifle with him. immediately rose, and with but a slight hesitation, opened the door; when he suddenly other full in the face "as singular a man as you paused, and stood a moment gazing in mute sur- appear, you nevertheless have an honest countenowever, he, in a sort of hesitating and doubt- to lead me into a snare. But granting that your stately bow, the stranger advanced with a bold, old man, whose only home and property lie unfree step, and a fearless air, into the mildle of der the very months of the guns of Fort Fred-gave evidence that his intellectual powers were not, as frequently occurs in such instances, wholly incommensurate with his physical proportions. A modern phrenologist, indeed, while comparing his high, and remarkably expansive forehead, with the vast volume which composed "On the 29th of October, 17:1, 4,000 English the back part of his head, might be much puzzled fell upon the town with fire and sword-700 to decide whether his intellectual or animal na-Americans defended the fort for a whole day; ture would most predominate in his character. but in the evening, about 5 o'clock, it was taken. His dress, which was somewhat singular for The commander of the besieged delivered up the times, consisted of high heavy boots, buff his sword to an Englishman, who immediately breeches and doublet, with a high collared, white stabled him; all his courades were put to the shag coat of the frock kind, all of which was sword. A line of powder was then laid from sura outsted by a fine, though somewhat worn the magazine of the fort to the sea, there to be beaver, shouthed, except the front part, which lighted thus to blow the fort up into the air. was turned up so as to give an additional bold-Wm. Hotman, who lay not far distant, wounded uses to his large features and to impart someby three strokes of a bayonet in his body, be- what of a bandit aspect to his appearance. This, held it, and said to one of his wounded friends, to ordinary observation, completed his outward who was also still alive, "we will endeavor to equipment; though a closer inspection might crawl to this line; we will completely wet the have revealed the shape of a stout pistol swelpowder with our blood; thus will we, with the little ling the smooth and snugly setting leather over life that remains to us, save the fort and maga- each of his breeches pockets, while the buckzine, and perhaps a few of our comrades who are horn handle of a large war-knife might occa-only wounded." He alone had strength to accisionally be seen protruding from its sheath at-He alone had strength to ac- sionally be seen protruding from its sheath at-year he died on the powder which he overflow- Placing the heavy rifle which he bore in his ed with his blood. His friends and seven of his hand in the corner, the stranger now advanced, wounded companions by that means had their and, with an air of easy unconcern, seated himself lives preserved. After this simple narrative by the side of his host in the family circle round

"My name is Hendee," at length said the Captain, evidently not wholly at his ease in the presence of his bold and fearful looking visitor, my name is Hendee, and being no great stickler for ceremony, I hope I shall be excused, sir, in saving that it always affords me pleasure to know by what name I may address my guest."

"That's right," bluntly commenced the

"I meant no offence, Sir." "O, no, but let me see-it is now May, is it

"Yes. Sir." "Well, then, for the month of May, my name

"Sir?-did I rightly understand you, Sir?" "I presume so-I said Smith, because there are more of that name than any other."

chance to get my right name: men will lie like the devil, sometimes, you know!"

"Really, Sir!" said the Captain, his eyes beginning to shoot fire at this apparently intended insult, "really, Sir, I cannot understand your drift, if you do not mean to offer us an affront."

"Ha! ha!" roared the stranger in a voice that shook the house, "well, now, if that ain't a good one! ha! ha! ha! Why, no, friend," he continued familiary turning towards the other, and giving him a rough slap on the shoulder, no, no, frriend; but you just said you was no great stickler for ceremony-no more ain't I, as "Agreed to that. And yet,"-rejoined the bar, and opened the door; when the visitor entered; but quickly paused, after entering the Captain, perfectly at a loss what to make of his threshold to receive the scrutinizing look of the strange guest, and though still vexed, yet now yet Sir, I have met, in the course of my life, but with few honest men, who where afraid to an air of much seriousness, "that you are all contined, advancing, and cordially shaking the other by the hand, "Mr. Howard, God bless Grants, that a stranger, like myself, can't safely you, sir, how do you do? Apologies by the travel among you by any other name than Smith, if he had one. As to myself I don't know, in shine concerns were ever worth offering. But the strictly legal sense of the thing, that I have walk in, walk in, sir. Here are all my family- any name-to speak of except Smith; for I still stick to Smith, mind ye-that is, for the month

"Well, well, have it as you will, man," obanother, Noshobee, we call him, a native, as served Hendee, now softening down, and beginyou perceive, but for all that an adopted member uing to be amused in spite of himself at the Miss Hendee, though much embarrassed at von are the greatest oddity I have met with for many a day."

that may be friend," said the stranger, his countenance assuming the cast of sincerity; "but uer as to conceal her embarrassment from all ex- as you, like a wise man, have concluded not to seemed to be tacitly understood that they should Captain Hendee, a man of your intelligence and observation cannot but have long since noticed the quarrel that has been brewing between us colonies and the mother country?"

"I have, Sir; and with the most painful re-have taken the lead in the resistance to the assuming an equivocal look, and fixing his eyes fellows are a set of Christless knaves, for their

"Knaves! How so, Sir?" replied the Captain hastily, and with a look that betrayed more of revealed to a stranger, and especially to one who so different from those which he had so long evident delight, "sits the wind in that quarter, really, and truly? Well, I am not disappointed

" Ves, but you, Sir?"-said the Captain, again conf unded at the seemingly contradictory lan-

"What did I say? O. pooh! that is nothing!" the embarrassing question, when he was stiddenly replied the stranger. "But again, and seriously, relieved from his dilemma by a bold, heavy rap Captain Hendee, (for I am now satisfied that it will do to ask you questions) should matters proceed to open hostilities in an attempt to burst

"Stranger," said Captain Hendee, looking the rise at the figure before him. Soon re overing, nance, and would not Ithink, try, in myon whouse, sentiments and mine coincide on this subject, Acknowledging the proffered courtesy with a what could you ask, or expect from an infirm, citizens have been shot down like wild cattle by to the great God, in cries of vengeance! All Massachusetts are in arms? And are we here of Massachusetts are in arms? And are we here of puriose of establishing his Museum permanently in this the Green Mountains to remain idle?" he added, city. with a look and a tone of almost frightful energy; by all the thrones of Heaven and hell, no, no!"

"O, for the renovation of one year of my manhood's vigor !" exclaimed the Captain, springing and Art, may promote, improve, and be attractive to from his chair and hastily striding round the

"All that is well enough, but unless, my friend," observed the stranger, after a silence of the infant mind. among the company of a few moments, in which he seemed to have brought his feelings back to the usual current; "so instead of cailing on Her- chizens. cules, like the man of the fable, in prayers that never can be answered, be thinking what you can do. This Indian"-he continued, in an under tone, approaching to the Captain-" he is domesticated in you family?"

"Yes, brought up by us, mostly; a cunning, prudent, and faithful fellow," replied the Captain in a voice too low to be heard, as he supposed, by the rest of the company.

"And may be made a useful friend for some emergencies, with your parmission, Captain ?" "You have it, that is for an occasional runner, scout, or the like-I should not like to part with him for any great length of time, however. "Here, my friend," said the stranger, approaching the native, and presenting him with a valuable pocket knife, "will you take this as a gift to remember me by ? Now look me in the

"Yas-umph! Ah, him good-one very good ?" said the Indian, quickly pocketing the " Now, Captain," said the stranger, putting on his hat, and giving other indications of his intention to depart, "I have only to say, that I am it. Now I must be off; and I have some notion." he continued, looking at Warrington, " of inviting your guest here to accompany me as a guide."

" Mr. Howard is an old acquaintance, Sir, just called after a long separation," said the Captain.

of Miss Hendee. " The stranger gave a scruitinging look at the father and daughter, and ended by exchanging with Warrington looks of intelligence, which very clearly showed that the two were by no means strangers to each other. Seeming to satisly himself, he was about to remark further, when he tramp of men, now heard approaching the loor, arrested the attention of the company. The rattling of guns announced them to be armed men, among whose voices the quick ears of Miss Hendee recognized that of Darrow. Instantly rising, she hastily invited Warrington to take a seat in the other room; and the latter complying. the lovers disappeared through one door, just as the new comers entered another.

*The Fort at Crown Point was in the old French war lenominated Fort Frederick .

From a paper 100 years old.

The following is a very droll specimen of Yankee wit. It has actually appeared in a Providence paper, and if the groceries of this Rhode Island jester be as hightlavored as his humor, he deserves a daily crowd of customers.

> TO BE SOLD BY NICHOLAS BRANCH, At his Refectory, west end of the Brige, Providence,

Consisting of bread, butter, cheese, hams, eggs, salmon, neats' tongue, oysters, &c. ready cooked. AGITATIONS, Cider, vinegar, salt, pickles,

GRIEVANCES, Pepper-sauce, mustard, blackproper, cayene. PUNISHMENTS, Wine, brandy, gin, spirits, bitters, &c. SUPERFLUI: IES, s veet oil, &c.

Snuff, tobacco, and segars. N. B. Any of the above articles to be exchanged to r NECESSARIES, VIZ. French crowns, Spanish dollars, pistareens, cents, mills, or bank bills.

Credit given for PAYMENTS, 30, 60, and 90 seconds, or as long a man can hold his breath.

Rudiments gratis, viz.

Those indebted for Must not be Nor think it a It they should meet For cailing for such And supposing it not To make immediate Arguments, Agitated, Grievance, Punishmen!, Superfluities, Necessary, Payment.

DR PHELPS'S COMPOUND TOMATO PILLS. The testimony of hundreds of Physicians and distinguished individuals, to the curative enects of these Phils, in every variety of chine in the United States, Texas, and the Canadas, establishes them as the most pleasant and efficient medicine ever discovered.

In addition to their being the most agreeable and efficient cathartic that can be used, in Dyspepsia Constipa-tion, Kheumatism, Headache, Worms, Inflamation of the Bowels, Liver adections, Bilious Stomach, Colds, and the commencement of Fevers; Sea sickness, &c. the operation is powerfully directed to the glandular system. removing all obstructions of the glands wherever situat ed; Sepirosities and Scrofulous taints, in their incepient forms; and if persevered in affording all reasonable relie in cases of confirmed and neglected scrofula.

Taken either a short time before or after exposure.

they render the system less liable to confract contagious or epidemic diseases, an should be resorted to by persons residing in low and marshy situations, or when travelling, or exposed to contagion. Also persons attending the sick, who by long watching and fatigue, or exposure to the effluvia of the sick room, become debilitated, and lose their appetite, will find great assistance from these Pills, in r novating and purifying the system, and restor ing the functions to a healthy state. Persons debilitated by intense and long application to business or study, and those also of sedenia y habits, will derive great benefit from an occasional use of them.

For that congested and deranged state of the system. which occurs in the autumn and commencement of wint er, these Pills are particularly applicable, in preventing heumatism, coughs, congestion of the lungs, &c. and tave prolonged many a life, which otherwise would have seen a sacrifice to the changes of season. particular to inquire for Dr. G. R. Phelps, and see that the proprietor's signature is on the label, Price 374 cents.

G. R. PHELPS, M. D. Proprietor, Hartford, Connecticut.

TOOD'S Drug Store .

a foreign soldiery! and their blood has gone up WASHINGTON MUSEUM.-The undersigned has now got possession of the first and second stories of the Masonic Hall on four and a half street for the

In founding this Museum, the undersigned proposes to combine the most select productions of the chisel and pencil that can be obtained by him, Specimens of Natural History, and Artifi ial Curiosities; Cabinets of Shells and Minerals; and whatever, in the combination of Chemistry

Those who are intrusted with the guardianship of children cannot be insensible to the advantage that a well-conducted Museum presents in the development and formation

It is now fourteen years since the subscriber began the present collection, which, when properly arranged, will be found worthy of the support and assistance of the subscriber, he is determined to give it a trial, trusting that the citizens will support him with their subscription, at least for a few years

N. B. Curiosities of any kind thankfully received as lonations or loans by persons friendly to the Institution. The second story of the house will always be in readi-less for Bails. Fairs, or any other use for which it may ness for Bails. Fairs, or any beautiful be wanted, at the shortest notice, by JOHN VARDEN.

12 pieces heavy Beaver and Pilot Cloths 12 pieces heavy Flushings and Kerseys

A. W. & J. E. TURNER. TRY DR. MASON'S HOP PILLS.—More than 10,-000 toxes of these pills have been sold in Philadel-phia since their first introduction there in June last. They are entirely vegetable, not a particle of Calomel, or any mineral poison. They are very mild in their operation, and their beneficial results in breaking up colds, relieving and their beneficial results in oreasing up const. The coughts, head aches, and all other complaints showing an oppressed state of the system are wonderful. Perfectly the constant of the con safe in all circumstances, and no attention to diet. We could give the names of many honorable and disting-dations. J. F. Callan, L. Johnson, C. E. Uppegnan and others, Agents in Washington, Bell & Entwistle Alexandria, E. S. Wright and Thomas. Bookseller, Georgetown.

"We should be sorry to part with him so soon."

"Mr. Howard will remain through the night with us, surely?" interposed the musical voice

"We should be sorry to part with him so soon."

"DEW GOODS—The subscriber is just receiving and opening some of the cheapest goods everyet offered, among which are many articles at the following prices— Handsome Gros de Naples at 62 1-2 and 75.

Rich figure: Satins at 68 3 4 and $1 25 Silk, Cashinere and Worsted Hosiery Ladies' Black Cotton Hose at 12 1-2 cents Misses', Boy and Infants Hostery Superior Milled Flannel, for Ladies Thread Edgings and Laces, very tow. Linen Cambric, Plain and Hemstitched Handkerchie's Calicoes at 6 1-4. 8, 10 and 12 cents, &c.

And many other goods usually kept in variety stores. JNO. H. DRURY, Opposite 7 Buildings, West end.

lar prices, viz.
Rose, Whitney and Mackanaw Blankets Red, White and Yeslow Flannels Cloths, Cassimeres and Cassinets Kentucky Jeans and Hardtimes English and French Merinos Servants' Merino Cloaks, at $4

7 4 and 8-4 Broche and Kabyle Shawls Hosiery, embracing in kind Lambswool, Cashmere, Augola, Worsted, Silk, and Cotton Hose and Half-Ho-e, and Children's Woollen and Cotton Hose of every size 4-4 French Chintz, at 31 1-4 cents per yard Persons wishing any of the above, or other articles in

HOSIERY STORE.—300 dozen comprise the subscriber's stock of that important article, Hosiery, and in it is embraced every desirable kind, quality and size. 10 dozen Men's Long Woollen Hose

's do do Cotton, Silk, Worsted, Cá 30 do Women's 150 do Mohair and Angola Hose 60 do Men's Lambswool, Country Knit, Worsted,

Vigonia, Cotton and Silk Haif Hose

ers, all of which will be sold at low prices by JAMES B. CLARKE,
Jan 18 No. 2 from 8th st. and op. Centre Market.

Figured Gros de Naps, at 75 cents Plain do do at 65 do Plain Poult de Louis, at 87 1-2 Black ground Mousselines, at $3 75 to $5 50 Colored do do at $2 25 to $8 Brocha and Cashmere Shawls, at $2 25 to $12 French Merinos, at $1 to $1 75 English do at 50 to 80 cents Needle-work Collars, Thread Edgings, &c. Bleeched and Brow. Cottons, Flannels, &c. With many other desirable goods, which will be offer-Jan 18-3t subscriber has on hand, and offers for sale, a lot of Coal of the above kinds. He also continues to sell all kinds of Lumber, and has on hand a large quantity of Oak Boards and Scantling, Cherry, Poplar, White and Yellow Pine, sawed Latas, Patings, Shingl s, &c.

Jan 18. ULYSSES WARD.

CHEAP CASH STORE.

TOOTS, SHOES AND CAPS, sold cheap for cash.—
The subscriber returns his thanks to the public generally for the liberal patronage be has already received, and hopes by constant and postetual attention to all orders, to merit a continuance of the same. He has received the following articles, which he will sell cheap for cash only :-

Moroco & Seal-skin do. Seal & Kidd Slippers. Gaither Boots.

Seal & Morocco do. Misses Seal, Morocco & Calf skin Boots. 16 Jeffersons Slippers. Childrens Shoes of all kinds.

Water-proof Boots. Do Nullys.

Mens' and Boy's Brogans.

All kinds of Over Shoes. Fur & Hair Caps. Blacking, Brushes &c.

TEW GOODS .- We have opened today, in addition to our stock-

cotton
1 case fine Linen Cambric Handkerchiefs
Also, a large stock of rich Laces and Edgings BRADLEY & CATLETT.

of all descriptions, executed at this office.

specimens of her painting may be sean. - Nov. 9.

inscription is found on a grave stone :

complish this noble design. In his thirtieth tucked to the side lining of his coat.

EARLY SCENES OF THE REVOLUTION. and threw himself in an attitude of defence.

Hallo! who comes?' "No enemy, to say the least," answered the undergo that ceremony." being so rough, can't you?" interposed the tlaughter, in an earnest half-whisper, quictly ter; "friend will you favor us with your name?"

The Captain now, evidently a little chagrined his meeting, in spite of all her attempts to appear composed, managed nevertheless to exchange the custo cary salutations in such a mancept her lover; between whom and herself it meet each other as for the first time, without naking the slighest allusion to their late interview. There was another of the family group least for some of the circumstances attending this east for some of the circumstances attending this "And those Bostonians and Virginians who neeting. And that was the India . Not expecting to see Warrington here till be heard his voice at the door, and never dreaming till this King's authority," resumed the stranger again, noment but that the latter and his master's famly were entire strangers, the poor fellow, when keenly on the countenance of the other, "those ie saw them meet as old acquaintances, and above all, when he heard Captain Hendee ad- rebellion, you agree?" dress the other by the name of Howard, looked perfectly confounded; and expressed as much infeigned astonishment as an Indian counte- his feelings than he intended should have been nance, perhaps, ever exhibited. The instinctive orudence of his race, however, prevented him apparently entertained sentiments on this subject rom betraying, by words, his surprise and per-ssumed. "Which way did you come, Mr. Howard?" resumed the Captain; "I believe you have not in you, after all, thank God!"

our present residence?" at the door.

Captain Hendre feeling more assured this time ful tone, invited the man to enter.

the room, where he pansed, and bowed slightly to the assembled group, most of whom, however, were too much surprised, and over-awed it may be worth much to know that your heart it the singular and formidable appearane of the is in the right spot. For the times are coming man to return his salutations. And indeed his when even what such as you can do, may be of appearance was of so unique and striking a incalculable importance to the cause. Indeed, haracter as well to warrant the sensation which Sir," he continued with increasing earnestness, his presence seemed to produce. Of an upcom-and, with deep and startling emphasis, "indeed son height, and with an extraordinary breadth Sir, those times are already at the door: Bloodof chest, supplied with large brawny limbs, his American blood has been shed I" whole frame constituted a figure of the most "Where? where?" simultaneously burst from Leiculean cast; while his large, darkly bright the lips of Hendee and Warrington. eyes, and the air of intelligence that marked the general expression of coarse, lion-like features, clenched fist and eye of fire. "Fity American stranger in reply, "and you got at it ingeniously too, by George!"

is Smith."

"Yes Sir, but what follows from that?" "Why of course, Sir, that you stand a better at the suspicions he had entertained, and the you see. So let us be honest and live up to our

"Why the truth is," replied the other with blunt drollery of the other. "But I must say,

"Aha!" eagerly exclaimed the stranger with Warrington, catching a forbidding glance from guage and manner of the other, "what did you

For sale at

Whatever may be the fortune that may follow the WINTER GOODS.-Just received,

154 heavy negro Blankets 30 pieces Saltinets, assorted 35 pieces Hard times 12 pieces Pland Linseys 17 pieces White Flannels Dec 7--3t A. W tion to depart, "I have only to say, that I am sorry I could not have been more frank with you lies are the test judges of these bings, please ask Mrs. in some particulars; but circumstances forbade Hepburn, Steam Boat Landing Mrs. Greet, 10th Street, it Now I must be off; and I have some notion." Mrs. E. F. Brown, C Street. Try a box according to tite directions, and you will ask for no other reccommen-

Mousselaines, Shaileys and Merinos
Cassine & at reduced prices
Cotored Silk and Worsted Braids, Combs, Collars Suspenders, Stocks, Cravats, Co. forts, &c.
Children's Japanned Leather Belts
Fur and Scal skin Caps, Boots and Shoes of all kinds

SELLING OFF!—The subscriber, determined to sell Of his entire stock of Winter Goods, if possible, of-ters the following articles full 10 per cent. less than regu-

Plain and Figured Dress and Bonnet Silks
7-4 and 8-4 Blanket Shawls (plain and figured) the Dry Goods line, may save a penny by calling soon at JAMES B. CLARKE'S, No. 2 from 8th st. and op. Centre Market.

50 do Children's Woollen Hose and Half Hose, of every size
Also, Lambswooi, Merino and Cotton Shirts and Draw-

SILKS, MOUSSELINES, &c.—We offer for sale—

IDNEY, GRATE, AND SMITH'S COAL .- The Ladies Calf skin Walking Shoes.

Gentlemens' Boots, sewed and pegged.

WM. DOUGLASS, South side Penn. Av., between 9 & 10steets.

10 pieces rich embroidered Mouselines de Laines 30 do do Striped and Figured do do
25 Black Chantilly Veils, assorted
15 pieces rich Changeable Silks, Rept and Poult de Soie 75 pieces heavy Irish Linens, warranted free from

JOB PRINTING.